

25.01.2013 More than just a catalog: The Glaser® product line: Simple, fast and APP-TO-DATE

Dana is constantly expanding its aftermarket service for customers: The entire Glaser® product catalog, with over 15,000 items, is now available to you as an online catalog at www.glaser.es/online-catalog and as an app for the iPhone. The database is linked to more than the TecDoc vehicles and revised and updated every three months.

Both versions offer expanded convenience and search functions in addition to the classic catalog in print form. The Glaser® product line app makes it especially easy to find the replacement part you're looking for.

Customers can conduct searches using all of the vehicle manufacturers' OE numbers as well as item, use, comparison or competitor number.

The Glaser® product line app can be found at the app store for download worldwide. It is currently available in German, English, French, Italian, Dutch and Spanish. Further languages will be added shortly.
